MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: FRUS, Volume XI, 1952-54 (U)

Following a meeting with Larry Pickering, Department of State, on 7 December, Larry handed me copies of three documents (attached) from FRUS, Volume XI, 1952-54, which he asked us to review once again at HO's request. HO is uncomfortable with the fact that our deletions from these documents tend to alter the sense of the record. I reviewed the documents and found that they were the same documents which had been the subject of previous discussions and an inter-change of letters. There is no question that the deletions are necessary since they pinpoint the Agency's presence in a foreign country, reveal our capabilities in one instance, and indicate a foreign contact in another. I called Larry and advised him that we were standing fast on our excision in all three documents. He accepted that and said that he would pass this decision on to HO. (U)
